

We are a biochar company producing temperature adjusted biochar and pyroligneous acid both of which I think can and should qualify for 45q designation. We are sequestering carbon and making the forest healthier sustainably. Using Sufi we are able to increase the forest health and creat a carbon sink as well