The Federal Trade Commission’s (“FTC”) recently announced non-compete ban, set to become effective on September 4, 2024, has raised significant concerns among numerous businesses and industry groups since its announcement. On July 3, 2024, a Texas federal judge issued an order that should give them hope that the ban ultimately will be overturned. Judge Ada Brown of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas entered a preliminary injunction blocking the FTC from implementing or enforcing the ban against the plaintiffs in the case before the court.
